THE WASHINGTON BEE.

VOL. XV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1896. No. 9.

SENATOR PROCTOR.

SENATOR PROCTOR.

Hon. Redfield Proctor, of Vermont, will be the power behind the throne should Major McKinley be elected in November.

Prior to the nominating republican convention it was asserted with some degree of certainty that Senator Proctor and his State would support Speaker Reed. It was a surprise to the supporters of Speaker Reed when Senator Proctor placed his State in the McKinley column.

They Say.

The dogs will bark no matter what you do.

THE BEE takes the lead in Afro-American journalism.

THE BEE needs no indorsement from Printer's Ink.

THE BEE speaks for itself and don't you forget it.

There are men who have no conscience.

The answers to the Editor's letters are looked for with interest.

Do you want to know the news?

THE BEE is the Paper to advertise in.

It is hoped that the negro will be either a man or a monkey in the coming campaign.

The party of Lincoln, Grant and Sumner is no more.

New issues have been sprung upon the country.

The Democratic party knows how to spring issues.

Is there to be a representative republican party in this city?

Be kind to those who are good to you.

The Capital City Club, will no doubt be a great institution at the Capital.

The negro has not been asked to enter the present Campaign.

There is to be a new colored boat company started in this city.

It will be known as the Afro-American Navigation Company.

It will be a new boat with the latest improvements.

New grounds have been selected.

The Afro-American is booming.

Do you believe all you hear?

Wise men always hear both sides of all questions.

He is a poor judge who decides on exparte evidence.

Why not elect the Supreme Court and all other Courts.

Life tenure of office is dangerous in an elective government.

Judges should not be appointed for life.

Let us have a change all around.

The Civil Service law should be repealed.

It is a farce and a menace to political parties.

Let us have a change.

What right has a judge to repremand a jury?

The verdict of a jury is supreme.

The jury is above the judge.

The integrity of a jury should not be impeached any more then a judge if he is right.

The greatest paper in the world is the one that tells the truth.

Don't be alarmed.

You will hear the news in a few days.

Be sure you are right then go ahead.

No matter who wins there will be a clean sweep all around.

There will be no more Kansas tender feet appointed to Distriet offices.

Those who thought they were pleasing those in authority will be named Dennis.

There is always a day of retribution.

The District Democrats will ratify the Democratic nominees.

Let us have a colored judge.

Some men remain on the bench so long until they think they own it.

THE BEE takes the lead and all others follow.

John Mitchell, is the bravest Afro-Americans in the South.

There should be be an Anti-lynching society organized.

The Afro-American draws the color line.

Let us have peace and win.

If you are right the people will stand by you.

The greatest men are those who do great deeds.

MEAT OF ONE AND BONE OF THE OTHER.

It has been a question much discussed among those who practice law in the Police Court and those who visit that department of justice, why it is that offences are made to fit the imposition of sentences.

It is a notorious fact thas Afro-Americans are the targets.

During the coat craze last winter, among white and colored criminals who were charged with entering halls of houses and stealing coats, the Afro-Americans always received the largest sentences, although the offences were the same. On one occasion two colored boys where charged with having entered several houses and systematically carried away overcoats. One of the boys had had no police record, but after their conviction they were given six months in each case, making their term of imprisonment on the six convictions 36 month each, or 3 years.

The following week two white boys were caught stealing the handsome overcoat of Mr. Park, formerly ticket agent of the Pennsylvania R. R., they were sentenced to two months each in jail.

Lawyer T. L. Jones charged the Washington News with libel, the editors were allowed to introduce evidence in the preliminary examination and their personal bonds were given for their apperance.

The white editors of the Washington Times charged the white editors of the Capital with libel, and in the police court, on Tuesday, the personal bonds of one of them were taken until the other made his appearance.

When the colored editor was summoned to appear in court on a charge of libel, he was not permitted to introduce one line of evidence to establish the truthfulness of his publication. The colored editor had to give real estate, gilt edged, notwithstanding the fact that the editor was a citizen of this city and well known to the court and officers, one of the smart bailiffs, requested the colored editor to remain within the railing and when he had a case in the lower branch of the police court to try, bailiff Darr accompained the colored editor down stairs and remained by his side until he was through defending his client.

There are some colored attorneys around who secretly condemn the court, but, will seize every opportunity to tattle to the court on one another.

Some of these colored attorneys lack manhood.

There are some judges who are held in the highest esteem by the bar, namely: Judges Cox, Hagner, Chief Justice Bingham, Justice Mills, and Scott.

The time will soon come when judges will be elected.

AIDING LYNCHERS.

There is in this country certain Afro-Americans who do more to discriminate against themselves than the white people who are charged with color prejudice. Every day the country is thrown into excitement and riot by the acts of Afro-Americans. Meetings are called by representative men and women of the race for the purpose of appealing to the law-makers and those in authority to put a stop to lynchers and lynching and appeal this obnoxious law, known as Lynch law. This being done daily, and right on the back of it, news comes fr m Seat Pleasant, Md., of James Smith an Afro-American charged with having committed a most dastardly and cowardly assault and murder. In the name of God how can the people be restrained from lynching? People who uphold honor and virtue cannot be restrained by the limbs of the law when the very honor of a woman is outraged. Such brutes as Smith, Fords and the like are dangerous enemies to the race. Lynching will be stopped and lynch law will be repealed when raping innocent and virtuous women and children by brutes is stopped. Not until then will lynch law be repealed.

GIVE US CREDIT.

The Omaha Nebraska Progress, reproduced two editorials from THE BEE in its issue of July 25, to wit: One, "T. Thomas Fortune and the other Cannot Agree." Our contemporary must have appreciated the articles to have reproduced them. THE BEE never gets jealous when you give it credit for its honey; it cares not how much is stolen.

"He who steals my purse steals trash," but he who steals honey from THE BEE and pronounces it good, and gives no credit to the makers, robs from them honor and integrity.

POLITICAL FICTION.

Rev. Geo. W. Lee has decided that the lynchers of Randolph and Cocking will never be brought to justice. He is about right.

Senator Pitch-fork Tillman, of South Carolina, has been a back number since the Chicago convention.

With regard to certain physical features of the Populist it is said those with silver whiskers are the worst.

Probabilities are that the middle-of-the-road people fared like the bull which took that position against the locomotive.

From his overmuch talking, his friends, while admitting Bryan is a big gun, think he should have a muzzle.

If there are many more factional splits in Delaware, causing political divisions there, hundreds will be quite appropriate.

Everybody going out daily on the wheel as a reminder that the world takes a turn on its axis every day.

A whole lot of great men are pictured on the new silver certificates. This, while not effecting its face value, gives it additional interest.

Though the Populists let Sewell slide, it was not down their cellar door.

Bicycle faces are said to be growing, but nothing like the bicycle figures.

One bold fact in this convention is that a man with a head on him like Senator Hill must find it hard to amalgamate with populism.

The great contest of 1896 is the wage-earner's battle. Let them see to it that they do not turn with suicidal hands upon themselves.

Between world's fairs, conventions, big census and political headquarters, no wonder the "Windy City" can not contain itself, but wants to spread all over the State.

Mr. W. C. Whitney did not need an ocean trip to decide what to do or say.

We see that Mr. Teller has dried his eyes and come out for the Chicago ticket. This seems to indicate that he does not recognize tears as the crying needs of this country.

As to a central position, it looks as if those in the middle-of-the-road were domed to be knocked into the middle of next week.

Looking at this late tender to the government, even the most hardened free coinage crank will not deny the gold-bug is some good at a pinch.

Mr. Whitney is out for an honest money convention and Mr. Hill is off on a yacht. Evidently the real democrats are not all in the same boat.

No middle-of-the-road business will do in times like these. People must take one side or the other; preferably the right, of course.

In the campaign of education among other volumes, it will be well to stuff the pocket-book.

Somebody at the St. Louis convention called on the spirit of Washington to gaze on them, as if there were anything in common between the "Father" of his country and the Populist.

Asking for public contributions s quite a departure for the silver arty. What does free coinage propose but that silver shall have a phance to help itself.

c

IS IT CONSTITUTIONAL?

In the Police Court a few days ago a jury returned a verdict acquiting a colored man who had been charged with carrying concealed weapons. The verdict was a surprise to the judge which was quite evident from the rebuke the jury received.

There has been too much of this kind of law practiced in the courts of this city.

Jurors are supposed to be supreme. They are citizens. They make and unmake Judges. The people are above the Court and when a judge in his official capacity condemns the honest verdict or any other kind of a verdict of a jury, he exceeds his constitutional perogative. Admitting that lawyer Moss' client was guilty in the eyes of the Court, what right had the Court to condemn the jury?

The jury didn't see it as the Court saw it.

We have had too much of this bulldozing of persons by Courts. It is time for it to stop. We believe in judges being elected at any rate. Some of them exercise more power than what is delegated to them.

While we have the most profound respect for the Court, we are anxious to see our fellow citizens fairly treated.

The attempt of a few of the negro attorneys to excuse and condole unwarrantable action of some judges is sickening and humiliating to their profession.

The verdict of a jury ought to be above the opinion of a judge.

WHERE DO WE STAND?

Elsewhere in this paper will be seen two letters written by the Editor and sent to the nominees of the two political parties, Major McKinley and Mr. Bryan. Up to date nothing has been said in the interest of Afro-Americans nor have any been placed upon the advisory committee of either party. Before an Afro-American casts his vote for either candidate he wants to know where he stands. If he is not wanted, now is the time for the candidates to say so. We are tired of eating bone when there is meat a plenty. The time has come in the history of this country for Afro-Americans to exercise the right of citizenship.

We are of the opinion that neither party can afford to do away with the Afro-American vote. He is gradually retiring to private life and if he fails to embrace the opportunities before him it is his fault. Where do we stand is the question we want answered.

THE BEE HAS GOOD SUBSCRIBERS.

There is hardly one colored reader of a Negro paper out of a hundred who will pay his bill when he promises. When you call the first time he will tell you to come again, if he has a pocket of money in convenient change. When you call according to promise invariably has some excuse and you are forced to call again and often you never get anything. Negroes enjoy being puffed in Negro papers but so few of them want to help the work along.—From the Omaha Progress.

THE BEE is blessed with good subscribers. Of course there are a few dead beats with whom we have had contentions. All of THE BEE subscribers are honest people, with but a few exceptions.

Honest papers only deal with honest people.

THE BEE deals only with honest people.

"LYNCH LAW MUST GO."

This is what the great political reformer, Editor John Mitchell, Jr., of Richmond, Va., carried into a by-word till now it is in every household in the land.

The meeting at Shiloh Baptist church on last Monday night was largely attended.

The occasion was a series of meetings held, in this city, denouncing the lynching of Sidney Randolph.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. John M. Langston, who introduced the central figure of the occasion, Mrs. Ida B. Wells-Barnett. The lady spoke in her usual strain and suggested the propriety of a permanent organization.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary Almoralia, who so bravely fought the flames at her house, last week, No. 56 C st.. n. w., and who injured her foot is greatly improving. Mrs. Almoralia, has fought many a battle and has succeeded in winning all of them.

JOHN A. MOSS, ESQ.

Among the most active and promising members of the District bar is John A. Moss, Esp., better known as the Ajax. Mr. Moss is among the first Afro-Americans admitted to the District bar. He has been known to have a larger practice than any five members of the bar, before he commenced to defend members of the Metropolitan Police Force, which made him unpopular among his people. Mr. Moss has a right to defend any man no matter what his nationality is.

His people have now realized that he was employed just the same as other lawyers, hence the prejudice that once existed against him is passing away.

He has raised many intricate law points, which, the court has sustained and which have resulted in the acquittal of his clients.

He was presented, some time ago, with a fine gold headed cane, from the policemen of this city, among whom he is very popular.

He is better known as Moss, the invincible.

MEASURE FOR TREASURE.

THE SALVATION OF AFRO-AMERICANS.

JASPER, FLA., July 26.—A race riot occurred last night, fifteen miles northeast of here, in which six men were killed and eight wounded. Two of the latter were women.

Those killed are said to be Henry Johnson, Albert Sullivan, Edward Johnson, white; Jim Solomon, Amos Campbell, Ike Mitchell, colored. The names of the wounded have not been learned.

The tragedy occurred at Haggard's turpetine still, where many colored men are employed. They gave a "festival" last night and while it was in progress a number of white men intruded and the shooting resulted.

It is rumored that the colored people are generally arming and a posse of whites left Jasper tonight for the scene of the tragedy.

AFRO-AMERICANS TO ORGANIZE.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION IN PROGRESS—THE POSITION OF THE NEGRO TO BE DEFINED.

At a conference held in this city on Thursday night, at the office of THE BEE, a committee was appointed to confer with the representative men in this country in view of calling a National Convention of Afro-Americans on or about the middle of September.

The basis of representation will be similar to the representatives in Congress.

Each Territory will be allowed six delegates.

Full particulars will be published in next week's BEE.

A WORKING-GIRL'S CLUB-HOME.

The Jane Club is one of the important branches of Hull House, though not specially connected with it except as it is fostered and advised by Miss Addams, whose name it bears. It is a co-operative boaring-club for young working-women, originally numbering seven girls accustomed to organized action, and it has been from the start self-governing, the officers being elected from their own ranks and serving six months gratuitously. The club has now about fifty members, and the weekly dues of three dollars each meet the expenses of rent, food, service, heat and light in the substantial house whose delightful air of comradeship greets one at the very entrance. The pleasant parlors and dining-rooms have been furnished in a home-like way by Hull House assistance, and the club has in itself resources of a social and intellectual character which go far to mitigate the usually desolate lot of the homeless working-girl. The club now occupies five flats, and the members share the housework as their occupations permit,—From "Hull House," in Demorest's Magazine for August.

THE AFRO-AMERICANS AND THE CANDIDATES.

WHERE DO THEY STAND? ARE THEY WANTED? IF SO, WHEN? WHAT POSITION WILL THEY OCCUPY IN THE BODY POLITIC?

The question is being daily asked if Afro-Americans will be recognized in the councils of either of the great political parties. The following letters have been sent to Mr. Wm. J Bryan and Major Wm. McKinley, the republican and democratic nominees:

Washington, July 17, 1896.—Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan, Lincoln, Nebraska, Dear Sir:—As the nominee of the democratic party or the nominee of the silver party, you have no doubt surprised the country, but, more especially the "old war horses" who took part in your recent democratic convention that met in the city of Chicago, Ill., July 7.

You are a stranger to me, and no doubt a stranger to the great body of Afro-Americans, in whose interest I address you. The issue in the coming campaign will be money, whether the country will sustain the platform that has declared for free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver or whether the American people favor gold as a standard and return the great republican party to power, are questions of conjectures.

For over two hundred and fifty years there has existed in this country certain citizens known as Afro-Americans, or more commonly called Negroes. This class of our fellow-citizens have been oppressed by the democratic party and in that party they have not been welcomed, except the inovation made by President Cleveland, who must be given credit for the courage of his conviction and the interest he has taken in certain representative Afro-Americans in this country. In the democratic or free silver platform nothing is said in behalf of Afro-Americans, nor did your party deem them of sufficient importance to elect one a delegate to your convention.

There exists in certain sections of this country a law, not upon the statute books, but an unwritten law known as "lynch law." This law is particularly applied to Afro Americans, who are suspected of crime and lynched without judge or jury, in violation of our constitution and contrary to the laws of the States in which these offenses are committed. It is to be deplored that the democratic convention didn't see fit to give utterance to any expression of opinion on this subject.

Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Bryan, is the only democratic president, since the war, who has had the courage to recognize superior ability and merit in Afro-Americans, although this recognition has been very limited. I take this opportunity of asking you if consistent with the declaration of your party platform and principles, to state what place will Afro-Americans occupy in the councils of your party and administration, should the American people decide to elect you?

Awaiting an early reply, I subscribe myself, Yours sincerely.

W. CALVIN CHASE,
Editor of THE WASHINGTON BEE.

Washington, D. C., July 17, 1896.—Hon Wm. McKinley Jr., Canton, Ohio, Dear Sir:—Permit me, first to congratulate you on your good fortune, of being nominated at St. Louis, Mo., as the nomineee of the great republican party of America. Your victory over the combined forces of American politicians, was, indeed, wonderful and unparalleled in the history of republican conventions.

Your nomination was an evidence of your popularity in the republican party and the faith and confidence the people and their representatives have in you.

The platform upon which you will lead the party to victory or defeat, is broad and liberal. While the tariff occupies a prominent place in the platform, it is evident that the money question seems to be the great issue between the two great political parties and upon this question the American people seem to be divided. There is a question that is more important to a certain class of your fellow-citizens than gold or silver; a question in which the personal liberty, the political and legal rights of a people are involved. While your platform declared against lynch law, we have yet to see an executive of any party enforce the amendments to our constitution which guarantee equal rights to all classes of citizens irrespective of color or condition.

If the constitution of these United States can be construed, to the extent to protect certain citizens abroad, and, in States, why can not it be enforced to protect certain other citizens in their domestic tranquillity?

The question of universal liberty, is, entirely eliminated from your platform so far as American citizens are concerned, and gold and silver are substituted and are made the predominating features and the issues in the present political campaign.

Should the party succeed in electing you or the American people decide that you are the choice for president of the United States, what part will Afro-Americans play in the counsels of your administration or what consideration will they receive?

Don't think that I mean to be at all presumptious or doubt the sincerity of the party whose principles have been equality to all, since its organization, and friendly disposed towards Afro-Americans, but as an American citizen, born a freeman, I exercise the rights of a freeman, and sincerely hope that the dignity of your position will not preclude a reply to him whose love for race amelioration and progress is above party affiliation.

With assurance of profound respect, I remain, Yours sincerely,

W. CALVIN CHASE,
Editor of THE WASHINGTON BEE.

THEY ARE COMING AGAIN.

The Orpheus Glee Club last June advertised an excursion to Notley Hall, with a double orchestra—one to play all day at the grounds and one all day at the boat. The weather was damp, and only a few friends came but the boys did not cut their promises but gave those few as royal a time as if they had been a thousand, with twelve pieces of music playing for them all the day and evening. Of course they lost money, but they paid it like men and never squealed. Now these young men have engaged the same steamer, the same grounds, the same double orchestra, and all for Tuesday August 4, and will make three trips—at 9.30 a. m., 2.00 p. m. and 6 p. m. Everyone who admires pluck, and who has appreciation for an honest effort to do all that is possible to insure their own pleasure, and all the friends of the Club should turn out on this occasion and give the boys a rousing ovation. They deserve it, and the pleasure seeking friends should see to it that they get it. Do not torget the day and date, Tuesday August 4th.

POINTERS.

It is bad policy for any young lady to make an engagement with two young men for the same evening.

No sensible young girl will engage herself to a man except love is the foundation. Neither will she accept a young man's company for the sake of an evening outing.

LAURA: I hope you will give yonr friend to understand that he can not expect to find you at home except he informs you before hand. You are perfectly right not to remain in to see him, when you have waited a week and he failed to come.

BLOSSOM: You are entirely too gay and conspicuous. Your friends are few and far between.

Men do not like giddy frivilous girls. Neither should girls care for men who are fond of so many young women at the same time.

It is not wise to impress men with your ignorance of life and its duties, for it only tends to lower you in the estimation of sensible people.

ROSA: Now that the engagement is broken, you should return all the letters and presents.

NETTA: I am afraid you consulted me too late. I am sorry you felt grieved at not receiving a personal letter for the party, in time for you to prepare a new costume.

SARAH: Your organdy should be lined with taffeta silk or 'lawn and trimmed with lace and satin ribbon. Do not wear white suede ties to church.

F. C.: Since you were in such a haste to receive a reply you should have enclosed a stamp. In writing letters, when a reply is requested one should always enclose a stamp, especially in business.

L. S.: A young girl who is to be married must, no matter how beautiful her neck may be, wear a high-necked and long sleeve bodice.

FLORA: It was quite the proper thing for you to bow to a gentleman first. Should you meet two gentlemen together and speak to the one you know, it is etiquette and not forwardness for the strange gentleman to raise his hat.

ELLA: It is not honorable to accept the attention of a young man, and allow him to believe that in accepting him as your sweet heart you mean to marry him, when you have given neither your word.

No girl should give her photo to a man before first thinking the matter over seriously. The giving of photos has been the cause of degrading many young girls- Who knows where a giddy young man may take your photo. Girls, be careful.

When a man persists in calling on a girl against her will, she should excuse herself, or send word to him that she is engaged, after doing this once or twice, if he be a sensible young man, I think he will comprehend.

NELLIE: When a gentleman thanks you for a pleasant evening, it is quite the right thing for you to say "that you think both of us have enjoyed it."

MARION: I was glad to receive your letter, written in the State of Virginia, it being my birth-place. If your friend is sincere, which, I believe he is, you can remain in the country and miss the city, and you will have no cause to regret being where you can see him.

NELLIE: Your hair is very pretty as it is. To straighten it, would make it look unnatural. Many a young man who has naturally straight stringy hair are desirous of having the soft, fluffy curls, which are so youthful looking.

When one's social standing is secure anything that one does that is honest, is honorable.

ADA: Position has entirely too much to do with your associates. You ought to forget the fact that ladies are raised in the kitchen as well as in the parlor.

A gentleman will walk beside a lady while smoking a cigar, before first asking out whether it is objectionable or not, and even then it looks badly.

COUNTRY: Because you teach in the country or spend your vacation in the country, is no reason why you should not be just as refined there as in the city. Country people expect a great deal of city folks, and the least touch of etiquette is noticed by them.

Any person in need of work or has a desire to earn money and have a feeling that it must be in a way not to effect her social standing will receive but my sympathy from well thinking me.

ELLA: The gentleman has but little cause to feel chagrined because you did not send him a graduating present. You sent him a note congratulating him on his success, which, I think is the nicest thing you could have sent.

NELL: Although the place of amusement was quite near for the gentleman to hire a carriage for you, I think it was only an act of courtesy. The gentleman is doing what is courteous in thanking you each time for the pleasant evening.

Delivery Horse badly used up. Cured by
MUSTANG LINIMENT.
Read letter below.

MR. JOHN H. FISHER.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Feb. 26, 1895.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—Our delivery horse was so badly stove up in his fore leg and shoulder that we could not use him. After using Mexican Mustang Liniment on him I found that it completely cured him and left him in the best of condition. I think there is a good deal in applying the Liniment properly. I bathed the swollen parts with warm water and castile soap. Then I applied MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT freely, rubbing it in thoroughly, and my horse was all right in two weeks. Yours truly, JOHN H. FISHER, Grocer, 117 Broad St.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE BEE.

The public and patrons of The BEE are notified that the following gentlemen are authorized representatives of his paper

Hillsdale Happenings.

The annual sermon to the order of Good Samaritans was preached last Sunday at 3 p. m., at Bethlehem Baptist church by the Rev. J. Matthews. It was a masterly effort, and was one well appreciated by the members of the order present. Large attendance.

Mrs. S. G. Brown was so unfortunate as to step upon a pebble and injure her ankle last Monday forenoon. The sprain necessitated the use of a crutch.

The Willing Workers of Bethlehem church are preparing for a grand entertainment to be given at an early date.

The funeral obsequies of Helen A. Watson, the beloved daughter of Mrs. Eliza and the Rev. Sandy Alexander, were conducted last Tuesday from the First Baptist church of West Washington. She was the sister of Mrs. Maria G. Davis of this village. Services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Taylor of Shiloh. "She is not dead but sleepeth." The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Many friends from Hillsdale were present. Resolutions of condolence and sympathy were read by the superintendent of the Sunday school.

Last Sabbath at Hillsdale Station church Rev. Thomas officiated at the morning service. At 8 p. m. the pastor, Rev. J. B. Washington, preached from the text, "The half has never been told." Excellent music was rendered by the choir under the leadership of Mr. M. W. Wilkinson.

To-morrow at 11 the pastor will discourse upon the subject of "Love." At 7.30 p. m., he will preach a special sermon, after the sacrament of the Eucharist will be solemnized.

The carts, picks, shovels, etc., which have been lying around the scene of the contemplated grave yard, have been removed since the last publication in THE BEE. Have they given up in despair?

Miss Georgia Simpson writes from Europe that she is greatly enjoying her vacation, and that she hopes to return in the fall much benefitted in every way by the sea voyage. After the last communication she was touring Germany.

Mrs. Luther Johnson at whose grounds the Idleside Club will give their garden party is prepared to receive boarders for the summer. See her ad in another place.

THE BEE paid a visit to Prof. S. G. Brown last Monday evening and was royally entertained. Being shown through his library, we much admired his system of indexing pamphlets.

Dr. Stevenson of the Pension office has purchased a fine home on Nichols avenue, near our friend C. W. Davis.

Dr. Scott has removed from Nichols to Sumner avenue. The doctor is meeting with much success.

Mr. Pendleton, the printer, has greatly improved his residence. He has now a handsome dwelling,

Miss Lizzie Collins is at present in Prince Williams county, Va.

Miss E. Banks and sisters have opened the dry goods store, formerly occupied by Miss J. Simpson. It is hoped that they may succeed, as they are competent and deserving.

Don't lend your BEE. Let your friends buy it.

Messrs. T. Dalton Brown and J. Thomas Roles, of Boston, Mass., are stopping at Mrs. Johnson's cottage, Stanton avenue.

A dinner was given at the house of Mrs. Annie E. Brown in honor of Rev. J. H. Payne, of Cincinnati, O., who was visiting the Christian Endeavor Convention and the many friends of his old home. Among the guests were Revs. I. L. Thomas, D. D., of Asbury; Griffin, of Benning and Galloway, of Falls Church, Virginia. Mrs. Brown will soon leave for her mission field in the west. Her friends wish her much success in the work for the Master.

Excursions from Roanoke, Va., on the 9th of August and one from Fredericksburg, Va., August 24th, will go to the Douglass hotel.

All Afro-Americans patronize Mr. Herman, at No. 738 Seventh street northwest, because he treats them well and keeps the finest goods in the market. His clothing are cheap, and for gentlemen who dress well Mr. Herman is the place to go. He is a friend to Afro-Americans.

DHUL FAKAR.

As I said before when a certain element was dealing out their favorite prescriptions of dirty work, petty meanness, tyranny, injustice and rascality in general, it was all right, and with a bland like smile, John Chinaman would do the act to perfection. As I said before, you had better get out of the game, because I hold a full hand of aces with the joker. You wont listen, but in due time I will make you all feel sorry that you tried to prevent me from playing in your back yard. Wait until the essence of perfection makes its appearance. The battle is now open, and I am in the field to stay to the end of the fight. I received a communication the other day from a tadpole, but as I only fish for shad, I pigeon-holed it, and thought to myself what fools we mortals be I would suggest to the party who spent so much time getting up the same to take similar time and help get up a collection, so that the seven may be paid. I am the snag that is going to sink you to the bottom. I am now enlarging the hole, already made. You wont be good and I am going to give you a good whipping—one that you wont forget in the next fifty years. I told you to stop the noise, and you failed to listen to the advice of your father, so take notice.

"A. L. MOKTAR."

P. S.—I am with you. Drinking you up now. Yes, he is a fool, and he has no sense, etc. If you do not watch, the fool will kill you.
